1 LITTLE HANDS ON THE FARM

Kids love this fun and interactive exhibit where they learn how food gets from farm to table. Activities on this miniature farm include planting seeds, gathering eggs and driving a tiny tractor before harvesting crops and taking them to market. With the earnings from sold crops, snacks can be purchased in the General Store. Suitable for toddlers to eight years old.

2 CHILDREN'S HEALTH BARNYARD

Get up close and personal with a variety of farm friends, from giraffes and zebras to pigs and goats. While you're there, make sure and visit the nursery where sows, ewes, nanny goats and their young are on display. Fun for the whole family, this petting zoo allows fairgoers to interact with all their furry friends, and even get the chance to feed them!

3 LIVESTOCK 101 STAGE

Catch a fun and informative presentation from resident livestock experts. Learn all about the animals being exhibited in the barns before taking a tour later on in the day. By then, you too will be an expert!

4 PIG RACES

The most-talked-about track in town; the pig races. Dressed in fetching racing silks, the wiggly piglets race the course to win your heart. Don't miss this fan favorite!

5 LIVESTOCK GUIDED TOURS

Want to get up close and personal with State Fair livestock? Take a tour of their living quarters and have all your questions answered by resident student experts! Livestock is at the heart of Texas culture, economy and livelihood. At the State Fair livestock barns you can test your livestock terminology and check out more than 15 different breeds of cattle, along with an assortment of sheep, rabbits, llamas and more. 16 daily guided tours every 30 minutes from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily, departing from the Champions Row area in Ag-Power Plaza.

6 LONE STAR STAMPEDE

Watch the tale of the American West come alive through this award-winning performance, featuring quintessential Western themes like stagecoaches, horses, cowboys and bandits. This can't-miss event showcases traditional Native American dancers, sharpshooters and a Texas Longhorn cattle drive.

7 I SPY TEXAS

Learn all about Texas agriculture and natural resources at "I Spy Texas," a new interactive exhibit in the Science Place building.

8 DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT MOUNTED UNIT DEMOS

The Dallas Police Department Mounted Unit is housed in the Pan Am Barn at Fair Park year-round. In addition to their equine partners, Dallas Police officers also perform demonstrations with their canine companions. During presentations, officers demonstrate techniques and training methods used for their animal counterparts, as well as answer any questions you might have. Demonstrations are held in the Ranch Arena.

9 BIG TEX'S FARMYARD

Old McDonald himself would be impressed by what's happening over on Big Tex's farm. Located next to the Kids' Boardwalk, Big Tex's Farmyard provides an educational experience through interactive exhibits as well as live animal displays, including calves, piglets and hatching chicks. Learn all about agriculture and its impact on the state of Texas, from the importance of farming and ranching to the process of raising and caring for animals.

10 WILD WEST PET PALOOZA

The Wild West Pet Palooza, featuring Joel Slaven's Professional Animals, includes an array of comical skits starring animals that have been rescued from shelters across the nation. Boasting an impressive cast of critters ranging from cats and dogs to pigs and porcupines, this show is full of family fun. The show is run by nationally acclaimed animal trainer Joel Slaven, who has been working with animals for more than 40 years and has trained animals for major films such as Ace Ventura: Pet Detective and That Dam Cat. Slaven and his staff of trainers have adopted hundreds of homeless pets and brought them back to star in shows all around the country.
